

Mr. Robert Mays Reid Passes to Beyond

Friends were saddened Monday morning when the news of the death of Mr. Robert Mays Reid became known. Mr. Reid had been in ill health for about a year following an attack of influenza. His condition became serious about a week before death overtook him.

The deceased man was born in Chambers County, Alabama, near here, June 1, 1853. He was the son of Robert Mays Reid, Sr. and Louisa Moseley Reid.

When a young man he went to California where he spent the better part of his life, about forty-five years. While there he was married to Clara Elizabeth Salmen in 1905.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid and their son, Robert Harvey, came here about five years ago. Mr. Reid has been engaged in the mercantile business most of the time since coming here and was prominent in his line of business.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday morning at the First Methodist church, Rev. J. W. Veatch in charge. Interment followed at Pinewood Cemetery, West Point, Troup County, Georgia. Schnedl-Jones in charge of the arrangements.

Deceased is survived by his wife and one son, Robert M. Reid, of Jacksonville, Florida.
