

George Lee Edmondson

EDMONDSON — George Edmondson, 72, a well-known race horse trainer and breeder, passed away Monday, April 15, 1996 at 9:50 a.m. He will long be remembered for his natural talent in making horses win, that no one else could get run out of. He was a kind person who was always for the underdog and stood up for what was right. We will always love and admire the memory of the greatest person in our lives. At his bedside were his loving wife, Jody; two daughters, Linda and Georgette; and son, Audie. He was preceded in death by his son, Buddy Edmondson; mother, Dollie Thomas; and stepdad, Tony Thomas. Services will be held Friday, April 19th at Albuquerque Bible Church, 320 Montano Rd. NW, with Visitation at 1:00 p.m. and Services at 2:00 p.m.
