

Mrs. J. E. Wood

Funeral services for Mrs. J. E. Wood, 78, were held from the residence, 605 East Adams Street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock with Dr. A. E. Prince pastor of First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was made in Greenleaf cemetery with White & London Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Wood died at her home here at 6:20 o'clock Sunday evening.

She was born near Butler, Georgia, March 8, 1857. Her mother died when the daughter was 14 years old and a year later the family moved to Texas locating near Webberville. Mrs. Wood's father died a year later and she and her sister went to live with an aunt in the Elkins community. Here she was married to J. E. Wood and the couple moved to South Texas. They returned to Brownwood in 1896 and had made their home here since. Mr. Wood was a building contractor until he retired from active business about six years ago.

Mrs. Wood had been a member of the Baptist Church since she was seventeen years of age. She had many friends throughout this section.

Surviving are her husband and three sisters, Mrs. Ella Glover, Miss Alice Hart and Mrs. Cleavie Vann, all of Brownwood. A number of other relatives also survive.

Pallbearers were W. D. Wilson, John Weems, J. W. Holcomb, Kay Roberts, Eddie Stephenson and W.E. Burlson. Honorary pallbearers were deacons of the First Baptist Church.
